

Policy for dealing with Bite wounds:

Written August 2018

If a child bites another child and the skin is broken, the broken skin will be held under clean running water for a minimum of 5 minutes.

The child's parents will be contacted and told to make a doctor's appointment to enable antibiotics to be administered.

Also follow the above procedure for animal bites - mouths are full of germs which can cause infections.